

1. Von Institutionen bzw. Personen beantwortete Fragebögen

1.1. Nationalbibliotheken

1.1.1. Handhabung von Sammelgut in der Dänischen Nationalbibliothek

Please mark X where appropriate.

'Active Collection' means that the library requests the publications.

'Passive Collection' means that the library receives the publications, even if delivered unrequested.

		Active and passive Collection	Only passive Collection	Creating a copy in the catalogues	Comments
	Hard copy items
1.1	Printed books	X OK			Books* 1
1.2	Newspapers	X OK			Newspapers* 1 http://www.kb.dk/en/nb/samling/ds/aviser/index.html [12.10.2013].
1.3	Journals	X OK			Periodicals* 1
1.4.1	University (BA): Bachelor theses				None
1.4.2	University (MA): master's theses				None
1.4.3	Theses (PhD): Dissertations	X OK			„The Royal Library does make the at any time most relevant and comprehensive collections of scholarly literature available for research and further education at the University of Copenhagen and for the country as a whole within the fields of humanities, theology, social sciences and law” * 1 Collections of dissertations http://www.kb.dk/en/nb/samling/udsaml/index.html [12.10.2013].
1.5	Extracts from books				None
1.6	Extracts from journals				None
1.7	Extracts from newspapers				None
1.8	Book-type of self-publishing: Grey literature	x OK			The Manuscript Department  page 8
1.9	Self-published items: groups (e.g. annual reports or statutes)	x OK			annuals* 9
1.10	Unpublished works	X OK			Manuscripts* 1
1.11	Leaflets	X OK			leaflets* 1 and 9
1.12	Printed publicity items	X OK			„trade circulars, price lists, society journals” * 9
1.13	Illustrated publicity items	x OK			According to the Danish Legal Deposit Law 1902 and 1997 (but not 1927: „Posters and