

1.1.3. Handhabung von Sammelgut in der Isländischen Nationalbibliothek

Please mark X where appropriate.

Comments from Iceland are in red

'Active Collection' means that the library requests the publications.

'Passive Collection' means that the library receives the publications, even if delivered unrequested.

		Active and passive Collection	Only passive Collection	Creating a copy in the catalogues	Comments
	Hard copy items
1.1	Printed books	x			*page 3
1.2	Newspapers	x			*page 3
1.3	Journals	x			*page 3
1.4.1	University (BA): Bachelor theses				University activity – not legal deposit
1.4.2	University (MA): master's theses				University activity – not legal deposit
1.4.3	Theses (PhD): Dissertations	x			scholarly monographs *page 4
1.5	Extracts from books		x
1.6	Extracts from journals		x
1.7	Extracts from newspapers		x
1.8	Book-type of self-publishing: Grey literature		x
1.9	Self-published items: groups (e.g. annual reports or statutes)	x
1.10	Unpublished works	x			*page 3 ; „ private archives“ Page 5
1.11	Leaflets	x			advertising brochures *page 4
1.12	Printed publicity items	x			advertising brochures *page 4
1.13	Illustrated publicity items	x			„The library has the duty to collect and catalog all published Icelandic print, electronic and audio material for preservation” http://www.theeuropeanlibrary.org/te14/contributor/P01200 [13.10.2013].
1.14	Photos				visual materials *page 4 Photographs not included
1.15	Handmade pictures				visual materials *page 4 Not included
1.16	Maps	x			*page 3
1.17	Postcards	x
1.18	Notes, printed musical compositions	x			„There is also a good collection of sheet music” *page 5